

HackSoc

Minutes for 18th of February 2021

Present:

Absent: Ryan Hardwick

Outline

1. Strengths

- No major setbacks

- Outsourcing fulfillment and streaming very successful

- Stream was consistent

- First 6-8 Hours slack in the schedule was used really well to mitigate problems

- Mini Bruces were hugely popular

- Discord had 'every single button you could ever imagine'

 - Ticket system worked great

- Experienced leadership

- Good adaptability

- Big team

- Hosts

 - Double hosts

2. Weaknesses

- Online

 - Lower engagement

 - Less appeal (No food, no in person socialisation, etc.)

- Reduced experience with online Hackathons

- Staffing commitments

 - Losing Heads of Sections

- Late confirmation of the event plan

- Late preparation/lack of preparation

- Poor Sponsorship Outreach

- Lack of movement on SWAG

- Limited screening process for hosts

3. Opportunities

- Hack Productions were great
- Swag Ship Hack solved the SWAG issues affordably
- GameSoc collaboration opportunity
- Non-T-shirt swag
 - Not having to overbuy
 - No sizing issues
 - Very popular
- RPG on stream was 'dope'

4. Threats

- Lack of communication with other groups
- Inexperienced hosts
- Health threats to staff
- Sponsor dropout
- Overrunning Workshops

5. GameSoc Night

- Smash Tournament cancelled by lack of interest
 - Multiple Events experienced this
 - Late publishing of schedule a factor
- Streaming event on top took away from engagement
- Engagement reliant event
- Lack of promotion
- Future reconciliation needed

6. Minievents

- Most engagement between hackers and stream didn't happen
- Demo on stream was taken as being handed off to Hack Productions but didn't happen
- Minimal promotion of minievents on Day 2, most cancelled
- Little to no prep was done for mini events
- Kahoots as filler were great
 - Kahoots-Host paring needed
- Prizes in advance add to stream content

7. Overnight

- RPG was fantastic,
 - 4 hours of great content
- AO had motion sickness during Phasmaphobia
- Entertaining, minimal conscious hackers
- Workshop reruns good for organiser rest

8. Judging

Judging mostly just worked

Some cheating got through

Forgivable mistake

9. Takeaways

Wrap party

Publish at least provisional schedule 1 month in advance of event

Start sponsor outreach early, confirm sponsors early

Communicate with the team about missed goals, accountability

10. Strengthening the Breed

Kahoots at the ends of workshops

Any Other Business

1. Backstage Voice

Changing the paradigm to having volunteers in the public channels

Use backstage voice for quickly solving confidence issues
